Epistle Reading

Romans 8:18-27

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy [to be compared] with the glory which shall be revealed in us. 19 For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; 21 because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. 23 Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body. 24 For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance. 26 Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

How then does it have tares?’ 28 He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ The servants said to him, ‘Do you want us then to go and gather them up?’ 29 But he said, ‘No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, “First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’” ... 36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field.” 37 He answered and said to them: “He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one. 39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. 40 Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age. 41 The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, 42 and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION We are gearing up for another school year and are preparing to resume our yearly Sunday School and Bible Class programs in the coming weeks. As we do so, it is valuable to remember what Christians Education is, and who and what it is for. Christian Education is instruction in the truths of the Christian Faith. The Apostle Peter instructs Christians to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18). Jesus says that knowledge of Jesus and His Word is the most important thing in life: “For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?” (Matthew 16:26). There is nothing more important for ourselves and our children than instruction in the Word of God. This should be the priority for us above work, family, recreation, and everything else. But it is all too easy for the things of God to take a back seat for the things of this world.

At times we must make choices: Will we go to church or the basketball tournament? Do we attend Sunday School and Bible Class or sleep in? Are we going to have family devotions or watch our favorite TV show? Will we take time for daily Bible reading and personal prayer or spend time on Facebook? There are 24 hours in every day. We all HAVE the time to invest in God and His Word. The fact is, we often CHOOSE to spend our time (or our family's time) doing the much less important things. Work and sports, even recreation and down time are important. But as important as those things are, they do not compare with the blessings God offers to us through the diligent study and instruction in His Word. Paul writes: “For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come" (1 Timothy 4:8).

Where are our priorities? How are we making use of the Life-giving Word of Truth which God has preserved for us and through which He prepares us for eternal life? We have been redeemed from sin and death through the suffering and death of our Savior, Jesus. We are not our own! Jesus "died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again" (2 Corinthians 5:15).

Lord, help us all to make You and Your Word our priority, knowing that You made us Your priority!
